For twenty-five years Caroline Noble had cut off every emotional attachment. She never went near Granville Kane, the man who'd fathered her child--the child she'd given away.

Then Carrie met her "baby", now a rising star in the Fortune 500 company that had become her life. Reunited through their son, Carrie and Gran rediscovered the passion they'd shared.

But under Arizona's desert sun, their newfound love threatened to wither. For even as their son had drawn them together, his resentment began to push them apart.
